Some Methodological Considerations. Let us know how it went.

This strategy of telling the story based on descriptive statistics and keeping inferential statistics in a supporting role may not work in every paper - Alzheimers Animal Therapy papers really must be dictated by statistical treatment of the data - but it will work in most empirical papers. If an angel did not bring comfort who has drawn the lot of similar work and did not often call me into Alzheimers Animal Therapy, how gladly I'd leave shoes and boots .
